AN OPEN INVITATION

Dear Friends,

As host of Pin Pals "Operation Game On" Golf Classic, and in association with the PGA TOUR's "Birdies for the Brave", I invite you and your friends to join me on Monday, August 16, 2010, at the beautiful and serene Morgan Run Resort & Club in Rancho Santa Fe. The tournament proceeds will benefit our military troops and their families through a variety of organizations including Homes for Our Troops, Special Operations Warrior Foundation, Operation Homefront, Naval Special Warfare Foundation, and Operation Game On, a program of Pin Pals.

Our goal is to net at least $100,000 at this event and to raise three million dollars overall when combined with other Birdies for the Brave events to be held throughout the nation during 2010. As we all know charity begins at home, and with your help and support, we hope to far exceed our goals. Please visit www.birdiesforthebrave.com and www.pinpalsjuniorlinks.org to learn more about these military charities and the outstanding services they provide.

Please show your support by participating in one of several sponsorship opportunities, and keep in mind that your donation is an investment for the future of our wounded men and women who courageously defended our country. It's not life as usual for us anymore...for the rest of our lives.

Thank you in advance for your support.

OPERATION GAME ON!

Mission: The mission of "Operation: Game On!" is to establish a golf rehabilitation program for the returning physically and mentally challenged troops by providing lessons, specially fitted golf clubs, reduced green fees, and playing opportunities.

Why Golf? It has been determined by doctors, prosthetic specialists, and counselors at the Naval Medical Center San Diego that golf has become the number one sport for use as an essential link to the rehabilitation process for wounded military personnel who have returned home with extreme physical and mental disabilities. Golf gives our troops the confidence to regain an active lifestyle and provides hope for a bright future. Some of these men and women were avid golfers prior to the call of duty, and with properly fitted custom golf clubs, they will continue to enjoy this wonderful game for a lifetime.

In 2008, Pin Pals Junior Links established "Operation Game On!" which gives our returning troops suffering from physical and mental disabilities the opportunity to receive ten weeks of golf lessons at Balboa Park Golf Course by certified PGA Golf Instructors; a professional fitting session from Mr. Jim Flick at Taylor Made's "The Kingdom"; and equipment including a full set of brand new clubs and a golf bag. In addition, Pin Pals has established a partnership with several golf courses throughout San Diego County to offer special "Freedom Green Fees" to our heroes. These troops from all branches of the armed forces are currently going through their rehabilitation at the Naval Medical Center San Diego.

LITTLE HEROES

Pin Pals has also created a partnership with the Armed Services YMCA and this program is exclusively for the children of our Active Duty military personnel. The program runs for five six-week sessions per year, and all lessons are conducted by certified PGA Teaching Professionals and held at Riverwalk Golf Club in Mission Valley. The lessons teach all aspects of the golf swing, short game, and putting, in addition to the rules and etiquette of golf. All lessons and instruction are at no cost to the Armed Services YMCA and the families of the armed forces.
